

Sustainable Seattle's 1st Environmental Film Festival

Join Sustainable Seattle for a feel-good evening celebrating positive actions in our community and other regions of the world.

Featuring local biologist/filmmaker Shelly Solomon and panel discussion moderated by Sustainable Seattle's Executive Director Laura Musikanski.

What: Five compelling films celebrating positive environmental work followed by a discussion about sustainability awareness and action.

When: February 11th, 2010 – 6:00 - 9:30 PM

Where: 4649 Sunnyside Ave. North - The Good Shepherd Center in Wallingford. The Center is served by Metro buses # 16, 26 & 44. Ample parking available if driving is required.

Why: Support Sustainable Seattle, local filmmakers & learn how a difference is being made and you can increase your impact!

Donation: $20 public and $5 students, under-/unemployed
Register at www.brownpapertickets.com/event/95063
Email questions to gabe@sustainableseattle.org

Event Details:

- 6:00 – 6:30 pm: Reception
- 6:30 – 7:45 pm: Almost Lost (Part I) – Restoration of the only native oyster in Washington
Almost Lost (Part II) – Pinto abalone recovery in Washington
- 7:45 – 8:00 pm: Break
- 8:00 – 8:45 pm: Community Shellfish Farming – Restoring water quality to Puget Sound
Organic Gardening the Tongan Way – Kingdom of Tongan
Starting a Water Quality Monitoring Program – Kingdom of Tongan
- 8:45 – 9:30 pm: Discussion/Q&A Session

About Shelly Solomon, Leaping Frogs Films

Shelly Solomon is a Biologist, Landscape Architect and water quality restoration specialist and environmental filmmaker. Shelly's goal with her many films is to increase public awareness of the positive environmental work being done around the world.

About Sustainable Seattle

Founded in 1991, Sustainable Seattle is a non-profit organization that promotes urban sustainability in the Central Puget Sound, nationally, and internationally. We serve as an incubator for emerging people, projects, and ideas, as a convener of diverse citizens and practitioners, and as a catalyst for turning indicators into action. Visit us at sustainableseattle.org
Check out our blog at www.sustainableseattle.blogspot.com

THANKS TO OUR SPONSORS

- ❖ Soundwise Starrfish Environmental Consulting
- ❖ Trophy Cupcakes and Parties

healthy communities, economies, and ecosystems